Raison d'être and responsibilities

The National Film Board of Canada (NFB) was created by an Act of Parliament in 1939 and is a federal agency within the Canadian Heritage portfolio. The NFB's mandate is to produce and distribute original and innovative audiovisual works that add to our understanding of the issues facing Canadians and raise awareness of Canadian values and viewpoints across the country and around the world. Over the decades, it has become the standard for audiovisual innovation in Canada and plays an important role by highlighting the changes and key events in Canadian society.

As a producer and distributor of audiovisual works, the NFB provides a unique perspective on Canada's cultural wealth and diversity. The NFB explores contemporary social issues through point-of-view documentaries, auteur animation and new-media content. Over the years, the NFB has played an important role in marking the major changes and events taking place in Canadian society. A brief description of the agency's activities for the current fiscal year can be found in the 2018-19 Departmental Results Report.

As Canada's public producer and distributor of audiovisual works, the NFB documents the history and culture of the nation for both domestic and international audiences. Over the past 75 years, the NFB has produced more than 13,000 works and received more than 5,000 awards, inspiring and influencing generations of filmmakers in Canada and across the globe. Hospitality

For the past several years, as prescribed by the applicable Treasury Board directives on travel, hospitality, conference and event expenditures, the NFB has been keeping hospitality expenditures to the minimum required.

Conference

Conference expenditures have increased partly due to the development of the NFB's new educational offer, increased visibility with potential partners and market development.
